Anthony & Antoine

And Their French Adventure

Written by Genevieve Yusuf & Illustrated by Suzanne Wilson

"BONJOUR, I am Antoine." "Oh hello," said Anthony to the friendly little boy.
"My name is Anthony and I'm here on holiday." "Ah OUI, yes. I live here all the time. My mum and dad work here at the campsite."
"Your English is very good," noted Anthony.

Antoine was very good. He threw his stones and they jumped across the lake.

“UN, DEUX, TROIS, QUATRE, CINQ,” he shouted excitedly.

Anthony concentrated hard and threw his stone, “UN, DEUX, TROIS.”

“Ah never mind, ÇA NE FAIT RIEN,” said Antoine. “You need BEAUCOUP DE PRATIQUE. It is very DIFFICILE.”
